

The Heritage Association of Frisco Presents Its Annual Art & Media Contest

Sponsored By Babe's Chicken Dinner House and Richardson Bike Mart of Frisco

Meet Your 2010 Judges!

A. Eilene Carver - Eilene, an Associate Professor at Collin College teaching Drawing and Painting, earned her Bachelors in Fine Arts in Printmaking & Design from Baylor University and her Masters in Fine Arts in Painting from UC Berkeley. Eilene's work symbolically expresses human concerns as she addresses a wide range of content; hope, jealousy, trust, to love, memory, the soul, and the contrast of the temporal and the eternal. Her work has been included in many regional & national exhibitions since 1986. Eilene Carver resides in Frisco, TX with her husband, three children & two terriers. She works with youth in her community in numerous capacities and her favorite pastime is hiking and exploring any State or National Park with her family.

Eilene Carver, Georgi Still, Chuck Venable,

Georgi Still - Georgi has had a lifelong passion for the visual arts and not necessarily in her degree in Medical Technology. Her enthusiasm for the arts lead to her first job as a professional fabric designer. For eight years she worked at Malia, a company in Hawaii. She then traveled to California to work for two years at Hoffman Fabrics. Currently she is a member of the Visual Arts Guild of Frisco, the Jackson Hole Art Association, and St. Philips Art Guild as she participates in local shows and events. She especially loves children's art and is happy to volunteer to be a judge for this year's contest.

Chuck Venable - Chuck, an established and talented Editor, has owned and operated CV Editorial Services in the Little Elm/Frisco area for the past fifteen years. With over thirty years experience, Chuck has edited a wide range of projects including broadcast shows, commercials, corporate image pieces, music videos and educational videos. Clients have included familiar names as Tony Roma's, the American Heart Association, the Waco Convention and Visitors Bureau, and artists Lyle Lovett and Kelly Willis. When not editing, Chuck enjoys biking and is an avid visitor of our co-sponsors establishment, Richardson Bike Mart of Frisco.

Judy Isbell - Judy is a Board Member of the Heritage Association of Frisco and works tirelessly on several committees such as the Historic Marker and the Art & Multimedia Contest committees. A long time resident of Frisco, Judy is quite familiar with the history of the City as she grew up here when Frisco was just a small community and graduated from Frisco High School when it was located at what is now the Maple Street Student Opportunity Center. Judy lives in the City's historic district and volunteers by giving tours for school aged children at the Frisco Heritage Museum.

Bob Warren - A native of Frisco, Bob was born here in 1921 and graduated from Frisco High School in 1938. A graduate of Texas A&M and a WWII pilot, Bob served on the Frisco City Council from 1983 to 1996, with six and half years of that time as our City's Mayor. Bob is a founding member of the Heritage Association of Frisco and as once president, he continued, for several years, to serve on the Heritage Board. He is a historian and a writer and has written several articles, mostly about Frisco's early days, for the Frisco Style Magazine since 1996. A collection of Bob's magazine articles and other writings can be found in the Heritage publication "Frisco – Now and Then".
