

The Heritage Association of Frisco Presents Its Annual Art Contest

Sponsored By Babe's Chicken Dinner House and Richardson Bike Mart of Frisco

Meet your 2009 Judges!

Misty Oliver Foster is a contemporary artist working in acrylics, collage and mixed media. Her work has been featured in several local and regional art shows and currently on display in the Frisco City Hall's Art in the Atrium exhibit. A native Texan, Misty has lived in Frisco for three years and is currently serving on the board for the Visual Arts Guild of Frisco. You may view her work at www.moliverfoster.com.

(Jane Whitlege, Marla Fields, Craig Maccubbin, Misty Oliver Foster, Larry Daste)

Craig Maccubbin, a photographer since he was a boy, started out as an assistant to his father's photography business, which led to chief photographer for his high school yearbook staff, and to his present role as an art and action photographer. His work from the Beijing Olympics was featured in the Spanish architecture magazine Pasejas de Arquitectura, and in the Japanese magazine, The Weekender. Craig also has several photographs on display in the City's current art exhibit and his work can be seen at <http://cmaccubbin.imagekind.com>.

Larry Daste is a New York children's book illustrator. His clients have included the Muppets, Barney, Berenstain Bears, Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles, plus at least a dozen other New York book publishers. Larry has also illustrated Hidden Pictures for Highlights Magazine, Pockets, Woman's World Magazine, USA Today, and American Way Magazine along with ad illustrations for Boeing, Frito Lay, Dr. Pepper, Zales, Igloo, Miller Beer, and others. He won a Cleo Award for his Lone Star Gas TV ad.

Jane Whitlege, a journalist and public relations professional with 26 years experience, is a graduate of Harding University. Jane's stories have been seen in many a local and weekly newspaper. She is currently working in the Communications Department with the FISD and responsibilities include website news, press releases, and media relations. Jane has been a member of the Heritage Association of Frisco since its inception and a resident of Frisco for 21 years.

Marla Fields is a freelance producer, voiceover talent, and writer in film and video production. For over 15 years, she has been responsible for the creative, pre-production, production and supervision of post-production for various industrial and commercial video projects locally and nationwide. Her work is online at www.marlafields.com. Marla is also the current Executive Director of Women In Film.Dallas, a non-profit organization that empowers, mentors, and promotes women in the film and television industry.